RE: PE-9448
American Highway Products
Steel Expandable
Manhole Riser

Dear Mr. Dees:

American Highway Products Steel Expandable Manhole Riser has been approved for use on Tennessee highway projects. This approval is based on the information obtained from the City of Chattanooga. City officials say the manhole riser has been in use for 3 years with no problems. The acceptance of this product is limited to the intended use as set forth in the manufacturer's product brochure.

If you have any questions, please call me at (615) 350-4100.

Yours very truly,
